Marlboro World Championship Team

As the '94 season gets into steam, it seems that most of the heat is being generated in the Florida camp. After Fitzgall and Linser scored a scoring 1-2 finish at Phoenix, the team swept the first three qualifying positions in Long Beach, with Al going on to take the win. Then came Indy, where Ernoo blundered and Al again grabbed the checkered flag. One week later at the Milwaukee Mile, the Marlboro Penske had their act together. Simply, as Linser, Fitzgall and Tracy cruised to a perfect 1-2-3 victory. Meanwhile, the rest of the field sizzled on, but in another race entirely.
